

Dear Members

Paul and Wendy Bridges, the Organisers for our EMA Visit to MALTA in the Autumn, from the 5th to the 9th of November, have asked me to send their reminder that the Waterfront Hotel in Sliema, and EasyJet still have 'offers' for early bookers.

They say that if you want to save a few pounds/euros now's the time to book!

As a reminder, here is an extract of what they said in January:

*The official dates are from THURSDAY 5th NOVEMBER to MONDAY 9th NOVEMBER.

The basic plan is as follows -

The WATERFRONT HOTEL at SLIEMA. will be our base!

You have a "room and breakfast" option when booking.

Currently the rooms have a 5% discount!

We would encourage you to BOOK ASAP; the rooms are refundable so there's nothing to lose!

This hotel is available as a package through airlines and holiday companies however, booking directly may be cheaper - even taking into account the cost of arranging your own flights and transfers.

There is no booking code for the hotel, so feel free to stay as long as you wish 😊.

There's plenty to do in Malta, but for now we're concentrating on the main points 👍

The Host Lodge visit will be to on Friday 6th November to the St. John and St Paul Lodge no 349.

Around £125 per person should include the Lodge Dining Fee, the Ladies Dinner, the Gala Dinner and Entertainment even though, as was pointed out to us, inflation has also reached Malta!

A number of Members have booked, already and, for example, one prominent Member and his wife say that they have booked an EasyJet holiday package (with sea views and private pick up), from 4th Nov for 7 days. Flying from Gatwick for just under £1500. Other providers are available!

BOOKING FORMS are being prepared and these will be circulated, shortly.
